Section 1 : Email of Request

You recently missed a lecture due to illness and need to catch up on the material covered. Write an email to your professor requesting a copy of the lecture notes or slides, and asking if there are any important announcements or updates you may have missed.

Subject: A request for notes of missed lecture due to illness

Dear Sir/Mam,

I am writing this email to inform you that I was unable to attend the recent lecture as I was not well.

I kindly request you to share the lecture notes so that I can write my notes and go through the topics covered in the recent class that I have missed.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Yours sincerely,

Nisha Majumdar
